

Treasures of Uptown:

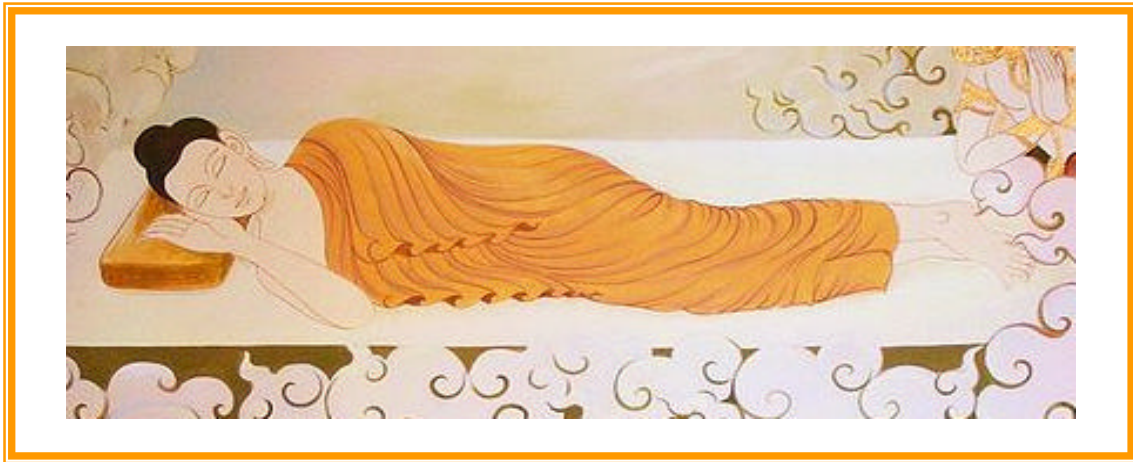

an interfaith action coalition

With participants of the Buddhist, Christian, Jewish, Unitarian Universalist, Muslim, and Baha'i faiths working for interfaith understanding

You're invited, for the Buddhist holiday of Nirvana Day, to an Interfaith Gathering to reflect on life, death, and afterlife:

Rev. Taigen Dan Leighton

will speak about the Buddhist perspective on life and death, and invite our reflections from our own faiths and experience

Sunday, February 13, 2-4pm at the

Buddhist Temple of Chicago

Parking available - lot entrance is on Racine (one-way north from Wilson Avenue)

1151 W. Leland Avenue (south of Broadway and Lawrence)

rsvp: 773-784-6633

admin@peopleschurchchicago.org

the Treasures of Uptown Interfaith organizing committee:

- Rev. Jean Darling, Ed Feldmanis, Rev. Bob Ford and Dave Karcher: Peoples Church of Chicago
- Savva Amusin, Baha'i
- Nancy Easton, Ancient Dragon Zen Gate
- Samuel Mohammed, follower of W.D. Mohammed
- Rev. Patti Nakai, Buddhist Temple of Chicago
- Margaret Shaklee, Chicago Area Unitarian Universalist Council
- Rabbi Taron Tachman, Temple Shalom